Changhua County Art Museum is the newest, largest, and best-equipped county art museum in central Taiwan. With lofted spaces and modern green architectural design, the museum is located at the intersection of Dongmin Street and Guashan Road in Changhua. Together with nearby national historic sites such as the Changhua Confucius Temple, Hall of Martial Virtues, and Shrine to Virtue and Piety, as well as cultural and scenic attractions such as the Changhua County Library, Changhua Arts Museum, Changhua Municipal Library, National Changhua Living Art Center, and the Great Buddha of Baguashan, the museum has created an even more appealing cultural living area in Changhua, and is not only providing the public with an opportunity to encounter art, but also stimulating local artistic and cultural activities, and boosting county residents' participation in art and culture.

Changhua County Art Museum's modern building has a structure featuring angled, branching steel supports, and boasts the visual theme of the bamboo groves of Baguashan and traditional mullion windows. The three roof garden platforms with different heights are in harmony with the natural ecology of Baguashan and the Hall of Martial Virtues, and an interesting tension exists between nature and the humanities, and between historical architecture and the new art museum. The building was awarded 2nd place in the Gold Medal for Public Buildings of the "2013 Taiwan Real Estate Excellence Awards," and represented Taiwan in the 2014 FIABCI Prix d'Excellence; it is a leading model of project quality and architectural design in Taiwan, and is the pride of Changhua. The Changhua County Art Museum will soon become the most architecturally distinctive, largest, and best-equipped county art museum in central Taiwan.

彰化縣立美術館中庭配置公共藝術作品「天地之美」，是全台最大牆面公共藝術作品，作品運用多元素材構築代表彰化豐富的人文與自然，呈現土地的生命力。清新透綠的玻璃代表乾淨的自然環境，陶版雕出土地的層次，象徵深耕的人文。球體不鏽鋼反射天空的湛藍與白雲，也反射出我們所處的環境與內心，在此駐足對話。細膩的層次表現，將自然人文的豐富性呈現出來，與美術館的建築空間做最美麗的視覺呼應，堪稱本館藝術亮點。
